

WELCOME TO THE STATEHOUSE WATER-EFFICIENT DEMONSTRATION GARDEN

This garden is designed to introduce you to low-water native and adaptive plants that thrive in Idaho's climate. As the state's largest domestic water provider, United Water Idaho recognizes its responsibility to preserve and protect our most critical natural resource – our water. Therefore, we are proud to join with the Idaho Capitol Commission and the State Department of Administration in presenting this demonstration garden.

The plants on the attached list are available at many garden centers and nurseries in the state. The goal of this garden is to show homeowners that they can maintain attractive landscaping while conserving water.

We invite you to stroll through this garden and enjoy the variety and beauty of the low-water trees, grasses and flowers that can grow in Idaho.
